Management and Leadership Sayings

As each of us encounters the opportunity to “talk the game of leadership and management,” we are sometimes drawn to quotes or sayings that allow a point to be made, a lesson to be reinforced, or to simply get a conversation started. These can happen in the board room, living room, locker room, or dining room. Here are a few that will make you smile, reflect, be challenged, and/or shift your thinking. Use them in any way that you like. In the end, these are meant to deepen our relationships, our strategy, and/or our way of viewing life’s journey points.

Comparison is the thief of joy.- Teddy Roosevelt

Do what you can, with what you have, where you are. - Teddy Roosevelt

If you can’t explain it simply, you don’t know it well enough.- Albert Einstein

Understand the sense of urgency. Sequential thinking may not be able to occur.- Rick Haines

Chaotic times are the best times to go on the offense. - Dick Pryce

You always have a play; there is always a move. - Ben Horowitz

Everyone has a plan until they get punched in the mouth.- Mike Tyson

Hard work beats talent when talent doesn’t work hard. - Michael Jordan

Here are several that do not have their author listed:

- Culture is really the atmosphere that exists in any setting.
- Always screen for the right kind of ambition.
- Managing strictly by the numbers is like painting by numbers.
- Try to get 1% better each day.
- Prioritize people ahead of process.
- Let your hopes and dreams collide with vision and purpose.

Manage and lead with reflection this week!
